

An introduction to iberoromance linguistics

By PhD Xavier Frías Conde, UNED (Spain).

Dates: Friday 26th March, 13:30-20:00

Place: Faculty of Arts, Namestí Jana Palaha, Prague, room 116

Programme:

I. SOCIOLINGUISTICS

1. The situation of the Iberian Peninsula (Andorra, Spain and Portugal) from a linguistic and sociolinguistic point of view
 - 1.1. Some sociolinguistic concepts
 - 1.2. Iberia Linguistica

II. LINGUISTICS

2. Galician
 - 2.1. Galician and Portuguese
 - 2.2. Features of Galician
 - 2.3. Some notes about its Grammar
3. Asturian-Leonese
 - 3.1. Asturian: Some features of Central Asturian (=Standard)
 - 3.2. Mirandese: some features of Mirandese
4. Aragonese
5. Catalan

NOTE: The course will focus on the least known Romance languages, divided into two sections: sociolinguistics and linguistics. Major languages such as Portuguese and Spanish are left aside.